About Me

Hello, I'm Anandita Nabilla Ramadhani, a 5th-semester Information System student at Sriwijaya University, the Faculty of Computer Science.

Proficient in public speaking, project management, administration, and designing, I currently serve as the Project Management Core Team at Google Developer Students Club and Secretary in BEM KM FASILKOM UNSRI.

My diverse experiences include UI/UX design, software development life cycle, web development, OOP concepts, and database management. Triggered by a user experience design course in my 3rd semester, I develop a keen interest in UI/UX and eager to explore it further.
